STRUCTURED SETTLEMENTS

What is a structured settlement?

---

A structured settlement is a voluntary agreement reached between an injured party and defendant. Prior to defense paying any settlement funds, the claimant elects to receive future periodic payments, instead of a lump sum cash payment. Structured settlements offer significant tax benefits and allow for claimants to budget, safeguard, and maximize their settlement funds.

Tax free payments are available for physical injury settlements, and for those settlements involving non-physical injury, tax deferred payments. To receive the tax-advantaged status, structured settlements must meet certain requirements:

- + Periodic payments must be fixed and determinable as to the amount and timing of the payment.
- + Payments cannot be accelerated, deferred, increased or decreased by the recipient.
- + Defense is released of liability for the structured settlement payments by assigning the payment obligation to an Assignment company (IRC Section 130).

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

◆ Is there a minimum or maximum amount that can be placed into Settlements Plus (SP)?

The minimum amount for SP is $250,000.00. There is no maximum.

◆ Must the claimant structure the entire settlement?

No, a claimant can structure all or a portion of the settlement. The portion of the settlement that will be structured is paid directly to the assignment company.

◆ Is the claimant limited to one type of settlement product for the case?

No, a claimant can split fund the settlement between multiple structured settlement products or other programs.

◆ What are the advantages of SP over a traditional Annuity?

Ability to defer unlimited amounts of settlement income, maximize the advantage of tax free/deferred investment growth, potential market-based returns, and the ability to adjust the risk tolerance according to changes in financial landscape, flexible structure.

◆ Can the claimant view the balances in the Settlements Plus account online?

Yes, online view-only access to the account is available whether the claimant chooses the trust company or a personal financial advisor.

◆ Where are the assets funding the Settlements Plus payments held?

Upon receipt of the funding amount, the Assignment Company immediately sends funds via wire transfer to a trust company in the United States for custodianship and management. At the completion of the Settlements Plus transaction, the assets are held by the U.S.-domiciled trust company as the funds' custodian. Additionally, if requested, the trust company may transfer the funds to an external financial advisor's platform.

◆ What are the fees for SP?

The fees for SP are as follows:

- One-time assignment fee of $1,000
- One-time administrative fee of $400
- Annual SP Program Fee of 1% of the value of the SP Account each year, taken at the time of account establishment and on or about each anniversary thereafter. This Program Fee covers the ongoing program administration costs, operating expenses of the Assignment Company, and custodial and administrative services provided by the trust company.
- The fees for investment advisory services by an external financial advisor or active management by the trust company are in addition to the fees outlined above.

◆ Why is the Assignment Company located in Barbados?

The Assignment Company is domiciled in Barbados to make use of the benefits of the US-Barbados Tax Treaty to prevent double taxation. More information regarding the use of our assignment company can be found on page 11.

◆ What type of tax reporting is required for SP?

For taxable settlements, the trust company, on behalf of the Assignment Company, will issue a 1099-MISC to the plaintiff/claimant during the year(s) that payments are made. The payments are reported as ordinary income.

◆ Are the assets within the Settlements Plus accounts protected from creditors of the claimant?

While the claimant would be the payee of the future periodic payments, the assets used to fund the SP payments are owned by the Assignee, Structured Assignments, SCC, pursuant to a Non-Qualified Assignment Agreement and Release (NQAR). Since the claimant has the right to receive periodic payments but does not have ownership rights in the underlying assets, the assets are not subject to claims of the claimant's creditors.

◆ What happens to the settlement payments in the event of the claimant's death?

Payments would continue to be made to the claimant's beneficiary according to the original payment schedule.

◆ What is the role of the trust company?

The trust company serves as administrator and master custodian of the SP program. It is responsible for accounting, tracking, reporting (including tax reporting), and calculations on behalf of the assignment company.

STRUCTURED ASSIGNMENTS, SCC

Tax-free and tax-deferred income through the SP program is made possible in partnership with Structured Assignments, SCC.

Structured Assignments, SCC was founded in 2010 as an entity for the purpose of accepting nonqualified assignments of periodic payment obligations. It is guided by an esteemed and experienced board of directors, utilizes the Royal Bank of Canada (the largest bank in the Caribbean) for all banking needs, and was established with advice from the renowned law firm Chancery Chambers.

The assignment company is domiciled and managed in Barbados in order to make use of the benefits of the U.S.-Barbados tax treaty. This ensures that the ownership of the funding assets does not trigger double taxation.

An assignment company organized as a United States corporation would generally be subject to tax on the receipt of a payment for assignment of a periodic payment obligation — fee for services rendered — as well as any interest gained from the assets it purchased and owned. Further, it would not have any offsetting deductions upon the purchase of the funding assets until and as payments were made to the holder of the assets, such as when economic performance occurs. While there is an exception for this under Section 130 of the Internal Revenue Code, it is limited to periodic payment obligations that are tax exempt under Section 104(a)(1) or 104(a)(2) of the Code. Barbados is a highly regulated jurisdiction with a well-established and longstanding tax treaty with the United States that allows for the assignment of payment obligations and asset ownership in a tax-efficient manner.

SP™ provides claimants with the tools to get the most from their settlement.
